

CUSTOMER ANALYSIS

Who are our customers, where are they, and how are they behaving over time?

CUSTOMERS BY YEAR

Insights: Customer acquisition accelerated sharply in mid-2024 and continued to grow steadily into 2025, indicating successful expansion and retention.

CUSTOMER BY PRODUCT CATEGORY

Insight: Customer demand is highest for consumable products like Tires & Tubes, while bike categories attract fewer but higher-value customers, creating a balanced volume–value mix.

CUSTOMER BY REGION & COUNTRY

Insight: Customer concentration is highest in the Southwest and Australia, while several regions remain under-penetrated, presenting growth opportunities.

ANNUAL INCOME BY GENDER

Insights: Customer income is primarily driven by the average income segment, with balanced gender participation, indicating broad market accessibility.
